

Principal's Message

February has been an exciting month of learning and celebration! Students have explored Black History Month, Lunar New Year, Valentine's Day, Family Day, and the Winter Olympics. Many classes are also getting ready to mark the 100th Day of School, Click HERE to see some highlights from the first two weeks of February!

A friendly reminder to all families: please respect the No Parking zones in front of the school and model safe habits when crossing the street. For everyone's safety, use the crosswalks at all times.
